nightfall AT THE HALL

Eat, drink, and bid your way through a glamorous evening of impact at the Great Estate.

It's Meadow Brook Hall's biggest annual fundraising experience.

Join us for a big evening at the estate where you sip cocktails, enjoy hors d'oeuvres and explore our unique selection of silent auction items along the loggia terrace as the sun sets – and night falls – over the Great Estate. Choose from jewelry, travel experiences, exclusive packages, outdoors gear, hunting rifles and much more.

A fantastic dinner follows, featuring fresh entrees and desserts crafted by our in-house chef. Experience the flurry of excitement as our Live Auction takes center stage and the big bidding truly begins. As the evening draws to a close, you'll step out under the sparkle of starlight as it shines across the Great Estate.

It's more than a unique night out - it's an evening with an impact.

AN EVENING OF SUPPORT AT THE ESTATE - WHERE SUNSET MEETS NIGHTFALL.

As a museum and cultural institution, Meadow Brook relies on supporters like you for sponsorships, donations, memberships and more.

Every day, our vibrant collection of historic tours, events, educational programs and experiences is drawing more and more people to this National Historic Landmark.

With your support, we can preserve this iconic space and share it in new ways with the next generation. Our eyes are on the present - and the future - as we continue our work as a vital part of this community.

At Meadow Brook, every ticket counts, every dollar makes a difference.

Meadow Brook Hall is a 501c3 non profit organization.

ABOUT MEADOW BROOK HALL

A National Historic Landmark, Meadow Brook Hall is the historic home built by Matilda Dodge Wilson, widow of automobile pioneer John Dodge, and her second husband, lumber broker Alfred Wilson.

Meadow Brook Hall is the heart of the 28-acre Meadow Brook Estate, located in Rochester, Mich. on the campus of Oakland University.

Today, Meadow Brook is a museum, events venue and cultural center that strives to preserve the historic estate and share the pioneering legacy of the Dodge and Wilson families.

Our future is focused on providing a world-class visitor experience, growing our educational programs and events, while serving as a vital part of our diverse community.
